

III. T/O Strength Devoted to Economic Intelligence Work

The present T/O strength available for the implementation of the Branch Mission is indicated below:

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF THE ECONOMIC BRANCH

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist - Supervisor - GS-15

DUTIES:

Chief, Economic Branch. Directly responsible to Chief, D/EE for the development and supervision of a comprehensive program necessary for the fulfillment of the Branch's Mission as outlined in Section II.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

Residence in Europe for the study of international economics and history, and in Eastern Asia for the study of and reporting on the national economies of Far Eastern countries. Graduate of Georgetown School of Foreign Service.

Experience:

Progressively responsible professional experience in several branches of economics, demonstrating ability to (1) administer and direct the activities of a staff of economic analysts engaged in research programs of a high order, (2) plan and supervise a comprehensive program of research in economic geography, international economic relations and abilities of nations to maintain balanced economies, (3) write and edit professional reports for submission to high level Federal officials, (4) conduct courses of study in international economics, resources, and economic potential on a university graduate level, and (5) consult with and advise high level Federal officials on research problems and projects in the field of national and international economics.

Job experience related to present position:

Foreign Economic Advisor, Planning Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces; Chief, Economic Potential Division, Industrial College of the Armed Forces; lecturer on national economics at Army Military Government Schools, Duke, Harvard and Northwestern Universities; Associate Professor, Department of Economics, Graduate School, Georgetown University; Chief, Economic Branch, D/EE, Central Intelligence Agency.

25X1A6a

25X1A6a

25X1A6a

12/19/51
R2